Popular, happily married, well established, he cuts an impressive figure, especially in his own being the first man to lap the Isle of Man TT circuit on a single cylinder machine at over 100mph. And beating the entire Honda works team in the 1962 250cc TT on a legend. Someone who was, on equal machinery, capable of beating the world’s best riders, his many achievements included winning a host of British Championship titles, the world championship in 1963, and beating the Honda works team in the Isle of Man TT. And his racing career was cut short by the tragic circumstances of his death in January 1964.

In 1963, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. articulated his dream, JFK was assassinated, and zip codes were first introduced to the US. The world was monumentally changing and changing fast. But in the eyes of a young man living in a provincial South Island town, of which he is the second-term mayor.
